

Meaghan E. DiLallo, Ph.D.

Clinical Psychologist

100 Main Street • North Easton, MA 02356

508-297-0863

mdilallo@mdpsychology.com

MD
Psychology

Experience

---

Psychiatric Physician Consultants of Rhode Island, Providence, RI      2006 – Present

- Individual and family therapy, utilizing supportive, cognitive-behavioral and solution focused strategies in an outpatient setting for children, teens and adults suffering from a myriad of mental health issues (e.g., ADHD, anxiety, depression, mood disorders) and family and environmental stressors (e.g., family, education, health problems)
- Psychological, cognitive, neuropsychological and academic testing

South Shore Mental Health      2004 - 2006

Quincy, MA

- Individual and family therapy and psychological and cognitive testing in a community mental health outpatient setting for children, teens and adults
- Crisis Intervention Team assessing patients at South Shore Hospital Emergency Room and Quincy Medical Center Emergency Room

Education

---

Clark University, Worcester, MA      2001 - 2005

Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology

- Devereux School, Rutland, MA, Individual, family and group therapy for boys ages 9 – 21 who were placed in the residential special needs program, including at-risk youth in a dual diagnosis unit for teens with mental health and substance abuse issues
- Y.O.U., Inc. Family Center, Worcester, MA. Provided individual, family and group therapy (including Juvenile Sex Offenders Group) in a community outpatient setting
- Center for Adoption Research, UMass Medical School, Worcester, MA. Conducted research related to children and families experienced with adoption and foster care

Suffolk University, Boston MA      1999 - 2001

M.A. in Clinical Psychology

- Suffolk University Counseling, Boston, MA, Individual therapy for university students

Tufts University      1990 - 1994

B.S. in Biology